Web-site Announcement

We are very pleased to announce that WIPLA has re-tooled its web-site and will re-launch the same on June 11, 2008:

www.wipla.org

Please visit the new site on or after this date! In addition to a new look-and-feel, you will also find new content and a more stable platform. The new site should also be more user-friendly and easier to navigate. You can also find out more about WIPLA's history, our by-laws, Meeting Notices, Presentation Notes, and more.

In addition, we will now be able to directly add new content ourselves. Thus, we can now post our Meeting Notices on the day we mail them, as well as our speaker's Presentation Notes following each meeting. We are also now committed to keeping the web-site up-to-date. Accordingly, we hope you will find it to be a useful resource for all of WIPLA happenings.

And finally, the web-site will also now contain our Membership Directory. Historically, we mailed the directories to our members every 1-2 years, but by making it available on-line instead, we can save the printing and mailing costs, as well as keep the information more up-to-date.

If you have additional ideas or feedback for ways we can improve the web-site, please let us know. It is our site; let's enhance it to suit our needs!

We are also delighted to thank our web-site sponsors, who help to defray the costs of maintaining the site and have made these new changes to the site possible. We are grateful for their support and WIPLA thanks them! Thanks to all the following:
